Plans are underway for visitors to “Double Down” on the experience elbow-to-elbow with local celebrities. The show is open to the public all three days, with a $10 admission on Thursday, $5 on Friday, and FREE on Saturday.

Since casinos first opened, people have been pocketing souvenirs of nearly everything casino related, including gaming table chips, slot machine tokens, dice, slot cards, playing cards, matchbooks, menus, dinnerware, swizzle sticks, post cards and more. It's a collector's routine that grew into today's passionate hobby, and has helped to preserve the past. "Just about everything that you could imagine with a casino name on it is collected, and will be on display at this show," said Jerry Vergatos, President of the Casino Collectibles Association.

Show attendees will find displays dedicated to casino chip categories such as rare chips, roulette chips, counterfeit chips, illegal casino chips, odd denomination chips and collections dedicated to sports and even aliens. "Collectors like many of our dealers have researched and journeyed to the big city casinos as well as the back roads tiny casinos, and written books documenting the rich history of gaming. If you find casinos – and specifically casino history – a fascinating topic, mark your calendar now to attend this show," added Vergatos.

Registered show attendees can also see the newest world's largest casino chip and token collection (as recognized by Guinness World Records), take in the four planned educational seminars, or participate in a live auction of hundreds of casino chips and other casino memorabilia.
