Wondering If That Old Casino Souvenir of Yours Is Valuable?

Bring your casino collectible to the World's Largest Casino Collectibles Show for professional assessment

LAS VEGAS (June 6, 2023) — If you have an old casino souvenir of any kind - chip, token, or any of hundreds of items casinos used for promotional purposes, you have a wonderful opportunity to have your treasure evaluated. Nowhere will you find more dealers of casino memorabilia in one location, professionals who can provide some background history on your item(s), and a range of value – not an appraisal – from the casino collectibles world.

These casino memorabilia experts will be on hand Thursday through Saturday, June 15 -17, 2023, at the World's Largest Casino Chip and Collectibles exhibition. It's the 30th annual Casino Chip and Collectibles Show at the South Point Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas.

More About the Show

For anyone who finds casinos – and specifically casino history – a fascinating topic, this show is a must-see event. And for the low price of admission, $10 max, it's an entertainment value. Open to the public, this unique show features a multitude of memorabilia collections on display including gaming chips and tokens, dice, slot cards and glass, playing cards, matchbooks, menus, dinnerware, gaming table felt, casino photos, advertising and promotional gimmicks, post cards – just about anything with a casino brand.

Concurrent to the Show, as part of the Casino Collectibles Association's 501 (c) 3 educational requirement, the club hosts informal Meet & Greet Gaming Education Series featuring four gaming history celebrities, as well as four educational seminars which are offered to the public free of charge. A live auction of hundreds of casino chips and other casino memorabilia is also offered at no charge to show attendees.
